Miss Dorothy Cady of Milroy and Miss Elizabeth Kackley of Maysville, Ky., Thrown in River

FORMER MOST SEVERELY HURT

George Green and Maurice Jones Escape With Slight Bruises in Mishap Near Metamora

A very serious accident occurred Sunday night about 9:30 o'clock, near Metamora, Indiana, on the horseshoe bend when a Ford roadster, belonging to George Green of Milroy, was overturned.

Young Green, Maurice Jones and Miss Dorothy Cady, all of Milroy, and Miss Elizabeth Kackley, of Maysville, Ky., who is visiting in Milroy, were in the car at the time and all were injured seriously.

The Ford was utterly demolished. Jones was driving the car at the time but was going slowly. He said that he saw the danger signal but thought the turn was sharp and since it was a slow curve, he turned right off the embankment and plunged down twenty feet.

Miss Cady, who is a correspondent for the Daily Republican, was unconscious when she was removed to Dr. Gifford's office in Laurel. One of her knees was badly hurt. Miss Kackley received a cut on the chin which required several stitches for it to be closed.

Young Green had a severe gash in the arm which required twelve stitches to close. Both he and Jones were also bruised to a great extent.

Both the girls were thrown into the river near the bridge but the water was not deep and they escaped drowning.

The young people realized the danger of driving over the hilly county in the dark and were going slow enough. It is thought that if they had been going faster they would have been killed.

They were taken to Dr. Gifford at Laurel where their wounds were dressed and afterwards they were removed to their homes in Milroy. It is thought that Miss Cady will be bedfast for several days until she recovers from her injuries.

FRANK HUTSON, JR., IS FINED BY THE MAYOR

Will be Arraigned Thursday on Charge of Transporting Liquor—Held Under $2,000 Bond

ELMER SHANE IS FINED $5

Frank Hutson, Jr., who was arrested Friday night, was arraigned in police court Saturday afternoon before Mayor Thomas, and was fined $5 and costs for intoxication. A charge of transporting liquor, which the officers stated they found in his machine when he was arrested, will be heard Thursday afternoon at two o'clock in police court.

He went to jail upon default of $2,000 bond, and also in default of the payment of the fine on the intoxication charge. Officers are holding his machine, which according to the law, will be sold at auction if the defendant is convicted on the transportation charge.

Elmer Shane, who also was arrested Friday at Anderson and returned to jail here, was arraigned Saturday afternoon on a charge of secreting an automobile. He was fined $5 and costs and given 30 days at the state penitentiary, which mayor Thomas suspended during good behavior. The charge against him was preferred by Russell Kirkpatrick, who alleges that he sold an automobile to him a year ago, and that he had removed it from the county without completing the payments, and that he had hidden it from him.

OPERATION SUCCESSFUL

Mrs. Fent Johnson received word today from her sister, Mrs. Laura Newbro, who went to Rochester, Minn., to undergo an operation for goitre, that the operation was successful and she was improving as well as could be expected.

INJURED MAN NOT KNOWN

George Holliday, Said to be From Rushville, Hurt at Muncie

According to a dispatch from Muncie, George Holliday, age 60 years, of Rushville, was injured internally Sunday in an automobile accident near that city. The city or county directory does not list any such name in Rush county.

The dispatch stated that he was in the machine driven by his daughter, Mrs. Grace Smith of Muncie, when another machine came along and crowded them off of the highway. Mrs. Smith was only slightly injured, but Mr. Holliday was reported to be seriously hurt.

17 FREIGHT CARS DERAILED SUNDAY

Smash-up on Big Four Near Henderson, Caused by Broken Rail, Delays Traffic all Day

LUCKILY NO ONE IS INJURED

Cars Scattered Along Right-of-Way and Some of Them are Hurt Into Corn Field

Seventeen freight cars, mostly loaded coal cars, figured in a smash-up of a serious nature Sunday morning about 9 o'clock on the Big Four railroad, just north of Henderson, and six miles from this city, but luckily no one was injured.

Traffic on the division was delayed all day Sunday and the track was not cleared for passage until late in the night.

A broken rail is believed to have caused the derailment. The long freight was headed north, and was making rapid headway on the straight track. The engine and tender passed over the broken rail in safety, but the seventeen cars behind were thrown in all directions along the right-of-way.

The loss will amount to several thousand dollars, as most of the cars were destroyed beyond repair. The shipment scattered along the track consisted of 600 tons of coal. When the cars hit the broken rail, several of the rails were torn up in twisted masses and hurled among the wreckage.

The cars were sent in both directions of the tracks. Some of the loaded coal cars were tossed clear into the corn fields with their cargo and upset. Two box cars were reduced to kindling wood.

The caboose was far enough behind the wreckage, so that it did not leave the rails. The track was torn up for some distance, and the cars were piled up and scattered along the track for a quarter of a mile.

On account of the wreckage piled high on the track, it was necessary for two wrecking crews to be called. Both of the heavy "hooks" or derricks from the Chicago division of the Big Four, were sent to the wreck, and worked all day and night in getting the main line cleared for traffic today.

The freight cars and the coal were left along the right-of-way and were still there today, and will be taken up later in the week.

A false report was in circulation late yesterday that two bodies, probably hoboes, had been found in the debris, but this report was found to be groundless today.

ALLOWS EMERGENCY CASE

Danish Government Makes it Possible for U. S. Airmen to Proceed

Washington, Aug. 11—The Danish government has consented to establishment of emergency bases of the world flyers near Cape Farewell, extreme south tip of Greenland, and advance officers have made tentative landings, the air service was informed today.

This was taken to mean the flyers have decided the quickest way of negotiating the last hop is by the way of Cape Farewell with a direct non-stop hop off of 780 miles. Given good weather, there is no doubt the airmen can make it.

WEEK-END OUTING TOLL IS 58 DEAD

Motor Car Accidents Cause Death of 43 Persons, 14 Drown and One Killed in Grandstand Collapse

Interurban Cars and Trains Add Their Weekly Quota of Maimed and Killed

(By United Press)

Scattered reports from various cities in the country places the toll from week-end outing accidents at 58 persons dead and 135 injured. Many of the injured are not expected to live.

Motor car accidents caused 43 deaths, fourteen persons drowned and one man killed when a wooden grandstand caved in.

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 11—Auto accident claimed five lives and a dozen seriously injured in Indiana Sunday. Four other were killed just across the Ohio state line near Oxford.

An interurban car struck an auto at Laporte, killing Alvin Rush, 36, his wife, Marial, 25, and John Jeffery, 27, all of Three Oaks, Mich. Jeffery's three year old son was probably fatally injured. They were on their way to attend a family reunion here.

In the accident at Oxford, O., Roy Fawns, 20, his sister, Lelia, 15, J. E. Johnson, 35, and his daughter, Dolores, 11, were killed. Fawns' wife was probably fatally injured. The Fawns had been married just two days and were on their way from Ringes Mills, Ky., to Newcastle, Ind., to make their home. Their auto was hit by a passenger train on the Cincinnati, Indianapolis, and Western railroad.

Mrs. Rebecca Winslow, Indianapolis, was killed and four others were injured when their auto was struck by a Pennsylvania passenger train near Seymour.

Another car obstructed their view of the tracks and the party drove directly in front of the locomotive. After Leo Haas, 20, of Jasper, had been missing for eight hours, his body was found pinned beneath the wreckage of his auto in a corn field near Jasper. He was last seen alive starting home from a dance late Saturday night.

Five persons were injured, none seriously, in the collision of two autos at a cross roads near Elwood. A cornfield obstructed the view of

GRAND HOTEL, OLD LANDMARK, IS SOLD

DEAL IS OPEN FOR 30 DAYS

One of the oldest landmarks in Rushville, the Grand Hotel corner at First and Main streets, will give way to more modern business, following the sale of the property at an administrator's sale Saturday to the Roxanna Oil Company.

The building was sold upon order of the court to settle up the estate of the late P. A. Miller, of which his widow, Mrs. Lena Miller, is the administrator. The price bid for the property was $10,000, subject to the acceptance within 30 days.

The hotel property is only one of several offered for sale, and the other bids have not been decided upon. There were two bids for the hotel property, with the Roxanna oil company having the highest bid.

If the deal is approved, the oil company plans to tear down the landmark and erect a modern gasoline filling station, which will be the first one to obtain a location on the public square.

LOCAL MAN ATTENDS SUPREME ASSEMBLY

J. L. Trabue Working For Appointment of Covington Man as Head of U. R. K. of P.

MAJ. GEN. LOOMIS RESIGNS

Samuel L. Trabue, adjutant general of the staff of the major general of the Uniform Rank, Knights of Pythias, has gone to Toronto, Canada, to attend the supreme assembly of the order this week.

Maj. Gen. W. H. Loomis of Grand Rapids has resigned and his successor will be appointed at the meeting now in session by the supreme chancellor and commander-in-chief.

Gen. William B. Gray of Covington, Ind., commander of the Indiana brigade, is a candidate for the appointment and the supreme representatives from Indiana—Judge Craig of Greensburg, Judge Pulliam of Terre Haute and Thomas L. Neal of Terre Haute, together with Adj. Gen. Trabue, are pulling for Gen. Gray to succeed Gen. Loomis.

The supreme assembly is the legislative body of the Uniform Rank,

TO BE THE BASIS OF REGISTRATION

Important Information Has Been Prepared for Voters by Indiana Election Commission

NEW LAW IS EXPLAINED

Voters Who Have Not Moved From Precinct Since 1922 Will Not Have to Register

Important information concerning registration of voters has just been prepared by the Indiana Election Commissioners and this will be the official basis for all registrations this year.

Under the new law, voters who registered in 1922 and who have not moved out of their precinct in which they voted in the 1922 election need not re-register unless it happens that their county has ordered a new registration, which is not the case in Rush county. Among the counties which have ordered complete new registration are Marion, Madison and part of Vermillion, and in these counties the voters affected must register again regardless of their previous registration. Most of the counties where voters properly registered last time need not register again, but they should be sure that the county auditor has their name properly recorded.

Voters who have moved since the last election, those who did not register last time, those who have become 21 years old since the last registration will have an opportunity to register in each precinct of the state on October 6, which will be the only registration day in these counties. However they can fill out their blanks now and leave the blank with the Republican County Chairman and he will see that they are properly signed.

There are three ways to register: One way is to go in person to the registration place in each precinct on October 6 and fill out a blank. Another way is to fill out a blank any time and have it sworn to by a notary, and leave it with the County Chairman to be filled October 6. The third way is to fill out a blank now and in the absence of a notary, have two voters who live in the registrant's precinct sign as witnesses and then leave with the County Chairman to be filed on registration day.

For the first time, voters do not have to give their ages this year. The law has been changed so that it is only necessary to state that the voter will be 21 years or more November 4, which is election day. A voter who is not properly registered at 9 o'clock

SEVERAL FROM HERE AT CAMP

Number of Rushville People Spend Sunday at Turkey Run

Many parents who have sons attending the Rush county boys camp at Turkey Run, near Crawfordville, Indiana, and their friends, visited the camp Sunday and reported an enjoyable time.

Among the visitors were Mr. and Mrs. George Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Herschel VanMatre, Mr. and Mrs. Gunn Haydon, Mr. and Mrs. Hal Green and daughter, Mrs. Hugh Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Derby Green, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kramer and Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Behrer.

The visitors were well pleased at the condition of the camp and many of them, especially the men, expressed the desire that they were boys again and could attend it. All of the twenty-four boys who are at the camp are in the best of spirits and are well and healthy.

NO VIRTUE IN READING LATEST

Books Should Have More Than That to Recommend Them, Dr. Leon H. Vincent Tells Teachers

Boston Man Discusses Carlyle and His Wife—B. J. Burris Not Coming Until Wednesday

"There is no virtue in reading the latest novel simply because it is the latest," asserted Dr. Leon H. Vincent of Boston, during the course of his second lecture before the annual Rush county teachers' institute in the court house assembly room.

Dr. Vincent closed the lecture regarding the influence of Carlyle's wife upon his work, with a plea for reading only standard literature.

"There is no need for not being familiar with 'The Fall of the Roman Empire,'" he said, "or the French Revolution."

Dr. Vincent urged reading such works daily, a few pages at a time, not as a task that must be completed, but as a source of information.

"There is no virtue in being able to say, when asked, that you have read the latest novel," he declared.

Benjamin J. Burris of Indianapolis, state superintendent of public instruction, was to speak to the institute this morning on the subject, "How Can The Rural Schools Best Serve The Community?" When the hour came for his address, B. D. Farthing, county superintendent, who is presiding, announced that Mr. Burris would be unable to come to Rushville before Wednesday and he will speak on the morning of that day.

Mr. Burris addressed the institute last year on the teaching of the constitution in the schools, and made a very profound impression upon the teachers of the county and others who heard him.

Mr. Farthing announced the appointment of the following committee this morning.

Program—B. D. Farthing, John Koch, Paul Royalty, Vernal Klipsch, and F. E. Landrus. This committee will select the instructors for next year's institute and will consult with the chautauqua program committee.

MACHINE CRASHES INTO SIDE OF BRIDGE

Three Persons Are Injured When Two Automobiles Attempt to Pass Near Arlington

ROD HOLDS CAR ON BRIDGE

Three persons were injured in an automobile accident early Sunday morning in the covered bridge just east of Arlington, when two machines attempted to pass in the bridge.

The three persons, two girls and a boy, were from Indianapolis and were enroute to Cincinnati. They were riding in a Dodge Sedan, Dr. A. G. Shauck of Arlington, who attended them, did not learn their names, but stated that the car was owned by a man named Schultz of Indianapolis.

When an attempt to pass in the bridge was made, the car struck the side of the wooden bridge and practically wrecked the end of the bridge. A rod prevented the sedan from plunging into the water below. The car was badly demolished.

One of the girls suffered a deep cut on one arm that required eight stitches, and the other two were cut and bruised.

Conway Tearle Starring

Distaste and charitable pity for the society butterfly is an equally popular sentiment, and the transformation of the pampered, irresponsible girl of wealth into the real woman which the workaday world requires has always been a process of public interest.

In "One Week of Love" being shown at the Castle theatre today and Tuesday, Conway Tearle is the most ingeniously drawn character of the forceful lover which has ever been created for the screen. College bred but disappointed in love, he has become a truly primitive cave-man but, more than that, his underlying intellect and polish have given him all attributes of the "Shiek". Elaine Hammerstein is the Society Butterfly pictured to perfection—treating every real problem in life as a huge joke, constantly tasting of dangerous pleasures, and continually looking for new and more exciting diversions. The restoration of these two characters to social normalcy through one of the most unusual love affairs ever conceived is the backbone of the story of "One Week of Love"—a story with sure-fire appeal to all classes of theatregoers, even including those who find it hard to accept the conventional male lover on the screen.

As to direction, "One Week of Love" ranks with the leading productions of recent years. George Archainbaud, who collaborated with Mr. Montagne in the creation of the story, was able to direct its telling in animated pictures with unusual effect for the reason that he had exact knowledge of just the shade of meaning it was necessary to convey in each scene presented. Mr. Archainbaud has long enjoyed high standing in the ranks of motion picture directors but it has remained for "One Week of Love" to establish him as a leader in his chosen profession.

"Western Luck", Mystic

Four sizzling good fights in one picture are a feature of "Western Luck", Charles Jones' newest William Fox production, now running at the Mystic theatre. If this isn't enough to satisfy his thousands of followers, particularly among the great army of small boys of the world who adore the star, Jones says he will make it five next time.

"Western Luck" concerns the adventures of a young westerner whose troubles begin on the day of his birth. To free his foster father from a crooked deal and at the same time rid his sweetheart of a villainous suit or, Jones had his hands full every minute. He divides his fighting prowess between a band of crooks near his home out in the West and a gang of hired thugs in New York. He has two "peachy" fights with the villain and two with the gangs.

Mae Murray At Princess

Mae Murray is coming. That's news which will be welcomed by movie-goers everywhere. But that's not all. Her newest Metro picture, "The French Doll," which will be at the Princess theatre Aug. 18-19 is undoubtedly the beautiful star's most elaborate and fascinating production. This startling photoplay breaks Miss Murray's own record for gorgeous gowns and luxurious settings. Her ravishing costumes were made from her own designs in New York, Paris, and Vienna, and they represent the last word in luxurious apparel. There are scenes of society life in Paris, New York and Palm Beach. Miss Murray has the role of a vivacious little French girl who found romance in America.

"The French Doll" is based on the successful play in which Irene Bordani played the leading role. Frances Marion prepared the scenario. The photoplay is presented by Robert Z. Leonard and was produced by Tiffany Productions, of which Mr. Leonard is director general and M. H. Hoffman general manager.

A TALK WITH A RUSHVILLE, MAN

Mr. Offutt Tells Something of Interest to Rushville Folks

There's nothing more convincing than the statement of someone you know and have confidence in. That's why this talk with Mr. Offutt of 321 W. Fourth street, should be mighty helpful here in Rushville.

S. G. Offutt, retired blacksmith, says: "I will never forget how my back ached. Knife-like stabs made stooping work practically impossible. I couldn't get rid of the stiffness across my kidneys, but worse than that, my kidneys wouldn't act often enough. The secretions were scanty and laden with sediment. Many times I didn't know what would become of me. I felt so badly. Doan's Pills, however, from Pitman and Wilson's Drug Store, regulated my kidneys and my back, ached no longer."

FEWER BUT BETTER CHURCHES, MOTTO

During Year 33 New Churches Were Organized and 143 Were Closed or Merged Into Others

New York, Aug. 11.—The annual report of the congregational churches of the United States has just been made public. A summary made by Rev. Charles E. Barton, the secretary, shows a notable tendency towards "fewer churches but better." The denomination reports a loss of one hundred and ten churches, but an increase of 3,322 members. The average membership per church, taking the country over, increased from 147 per church to over 150 members per churches. This is accounted for by three reasons:

First, the concentration of population in cities from the country thus making the continuance of rural churches impossible.

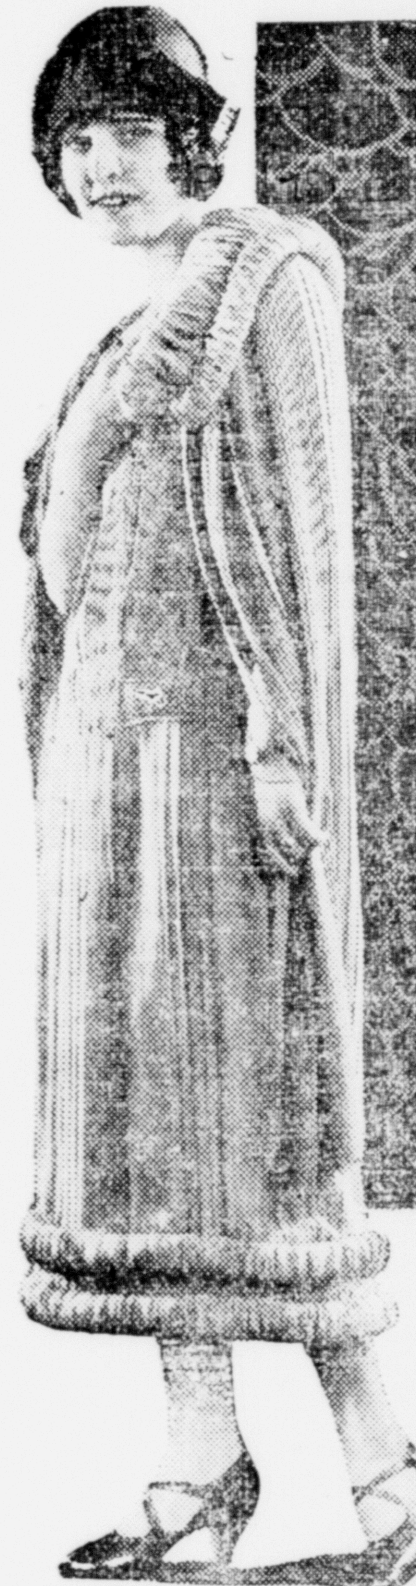

Second, the wide use of the automobile allows many country dwellers to go to the town church.

Third, the growing spirit of church union or federation which brings about the union of two or more small churches of various denominations into one strong church.

During the year 33 new churches were organized, and 143 were closed or merged into churches of other denominations. Property values have increased by $8,412,461, bringing it up to $132,388,237. Invested funds of the churches amount to $15,343,948, being an increase of $824,550 in the year.

The annual budgets of the churches reporting amount to $18,261,691, which is $1,479,936 more than the preceding year. This does not include the benevolence of the churches, which total $5,366,181, or $153,965 more than the preceding year.

Novel Trimming

A novel trimming effect is shown in this two-piece costume of golden brown crepe de chine. The bottom of the skirt and the collar of the cape are finished with hoop-like rolls made by inserting very wide, padded cords into a fold of the silk. Many of the newest capes and coats are finished this way and fur is eliminated. This gives something of the fluffy effect of fur without its suggestion of warmth which is unwelcome in mid-summer.

CLEM SHAVER IS CHAIRMAN

West Virginia Man Elected Head of Democratic National Committee

Clarksburg, W. Va., Aug. 11.—Clem L. Shaver of West Virginia, was elected chairman of the national Democratic committee by acclamation at its meeting here today.

This was the only business of the committee at its morning session. It was to meet again this afternoon to elect a secretary and treasurer and a vice chairman who will be in charge of women's activities. Mrs. Emily Newell Blair is expected to be renominated to this post. Charles A. Greathouse, of Indiana is expected to be selected secretary.

The post of treasurer has been offered to W. T. Kemper, of Kansas City, national committeeman from Missouri, but there is some doubt about his accepting the place. He will give his decision at the afternoon meeting.

A Credit Asset

Fire prevention, which has been growing in practice since the beginning of the twentieth century, pays its cost many times over. It is a credit asset in business, just as going value and good will are. Credit is based on wealth, and as fire destroys wealth it is natural that effective steps to reduce or prevent such destruction should be reflected in increased confidence and trust.

An illustration of how fire prevention has become a powerful credit asset is drawn by William Walker Orr, a credit expert, from a comparison of conditions today and a few years ago in the flour milling industry. Reports to the National Fire Waste Council show that the study and efforts of chemists and fire prevention engineers have developed safety measures which have advanced the milling industry from a position of extreme hazard to comparative freedom from hazard. Formerly it was considered unsafe to do business in large units in the milling of flour and it was difficult to get an adequate insurance coverage and to attract investments in mill stocks, Orr said, but with the application of scientific precautions to safeguard the property investments are now readily made in the milling industry and pro-

—because, in olden times, when pens were goose quills, people carried small knives to sharpen the dull points. "In modern times,

Puretest CASTOR OIL

helps to keep the system fit; thus sharpening up that dull feeling and making more keen our enjoyment of health.

Puretest Castor Oil is made by a new process which renders it absolutely pure. Not nauseating like old-fashioned castor oil, but surprisingly easy to take, even for children.

Pitman & Wilson

The Rexall Drug Store

duction is carried on in large units without undue risk.

The cotton and drug industries are notable examples of other lines that have been made similarly safe by fire prevention, Orr states.

Every business, whether manufacturing, jobbing, or retailing, can profit from the practice of fire prevention and Newman T. Miller, the state fire marshal, has announced that his office will furnish information and make recommendations or otherwise assist any business or industry in making plants and stores more safe.

Have Faith in America

In the June Harper's Magazine, David F. Houston has a constructive article which shows that this country is sound in spite of the workings of pessimists, agitators and demagogues.

Those whose comparisons are with the heroic days of George Washington are reminded that he was by some of his own day called a hypocrite, an impostor and a murderer. Those whose political demigods are the Clays, the Websters and the Calhouns are told that Cleveland, Wilson and Richard Olney were more worthy to be followed than these statesmen of the former days. And to those who do not look back at all, but only about them in bewilderment and disgust upon scandals, class conflicts and blows, Mr. Houston brings the conclusion that no one class or
 "bloc" has sense enough to govern all the other classes, and that present "bloes" will disappear even as did the ones against which Washington warned the people.

There is, with a safeguarded economic stability, a spirit in the people which will insist upon a clean national household from cellar to attic, and which prompts this financier whose roots are deep in the soil of America to advise the public that "the United States is today the safest investment in the world."

HUNT'S DAILY LETTER

BY HARRY B. HUNT
 NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON—Let's hurl another brickbat at Washington, the "beautiful capital."
 Let's try to get another peek behind the false fronts behind which this city lives.

Washington's population is not a "producing" population. Although it is inclined, as a city, to turn its nose up at other cities, it is in no sense self-sustaining. It is parasitic.
 Actually, not figuratively, it lives off the rest of the country.

Washington's population falls into three distinct classes.
 First—Employees and officials of the United States government.
 Second—Tradesmen and their employees, who feed and clothe the employees and officials of the government.

Third—"Retired" individuals of wealth, with social or political aspirations, who find in life at the capital an opportunity to serve their own interests as well as their own pleasures by being "in the swim" of capital affairs.

THE result of this condition is that the only group with any permanent, abiding interest in the development of the city is the second—the group which lives off the less permanent and less Washington-minded part of the population.

Many thousands of Washington residents, persons who have lived here for years, never think of Washington as "home."

"Home" is where they came from when they first got their job with Uncle Sam. It is where they keep their "voting residence." It is where they expect to return when they quit the government service.

In the meantime, with no voice
 as to how the city is to be run, with only a "temporary" interest in its affairs, they accept unsatisfactory housing and transportation, high prices and mediocre service, and the dozen and one annoyances and inconveniences that beset the existence of the average sojourner here, as the lot of a temporary dweller anywhere, and make the best of it with a minimum of protest.

Among this group—and it is one of the largest in Washington—
 there is little loyalty to the capital city. It has taken from them in full measure for what it has given.
 It never becomes their city, their home.

They now know too well the rear sides of those false fronts which first fascinated them. They may "like" Washington, but their love remains steadfast with Kankakee, Kalamazoo and Walla Walla.

ONE of the difficulties with Washington, on the material side of its evolution, has been its intensive development.

Washington is limited by the boundaries of the District of Columbia. It cannot expand. It cannot spread. It cannot sprout extensive suburban areas of comfortable homes and annex them as part of the parent city.

Anything outside the 73 square miles of the District of Columbia never can hope to be a part of Washington.

You may be two miles from the White House, in Virginia, but you are an outlander.

You may be five miles from the White House, and in Maryland, and you are likewise outside the pale.

But you may be seven miles from the White House, and still inside the remotest point of the District Line, and the rest of the United States will pay 40 per cent of your city taxes.

THE result of these fixed limits to what may ever be included in the beneficence of the nation to its capital city has resulted in a close control, by a few large interests, of the undeveloped territory still within the District.

This assured monopoly has in turn made possible the capitalization of these lands on a scale which forces their sale in the smallest possible plots.

This makes for congestion and crowding and ugliness, not for a healthy, happy, "beautiful" capital city.

By H. V. McCully, D. C. Ph. C.

The time of the year has arrived that so many people hate to see because it means either leave home for northern points or pass through a siege of so called Hay Fever.

The only ones who suffer from this malady are those who have nasal passages that are inflamed and over-sensitive. This condition is due to a lack of nerve supply to the nasal membrane, caused by a pressure on the spinal nerve as it leaves the region of the neck.

 substance, so prevalent in the dust laden air of summer, coming in con-

ANOTHER MATCH HAS BEEN ADDED

Dave Shade of California Will be Given Chance With Winner of Walker-Leonard Bout

The Match Will Probably Be Put on the Open Market to Obtain Spirited Bidding

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

New York, Aug. 11—Another interesting championship match has been added to the overburdened summer boxing program. Dave Shade, the California welterweight, who has been trying to get a championship match for three years, has been promised a bout with the winner of the Walker-Leonard match.

Following a precedent that was established last summer when Johnny Dundee claimed priority over Eugene Crispien for a featherweight championship bout with Johnny Kilbane, the New York boxing commission asked Walker and Leonard to sign an agreement that the winner of the bout would accept a match with Shade within 40 days after their bout.
The managers of Walker and Leonard agreed.

The match probably will be put on the open market and spirited bidding by the promoters is sure to follow.
Shade for several years has been regarded as the outstanding contender in the class. His efforts to get a championship match with Jack Britton failed and when Mickey Walker succeeded Britton, Shade met with no more success and he was forced to leave the class and mingle with the middleweights. Walker was suspended by the commission for refusing to accept Shade's challenge and it was only recently that he was reinstated.

Leonard, who has been training at Tannersville, is in Cleveland now, where he is to meet Pal Moran next Monday night. The lightweight champion insists that the match will be nothing more than a warm-up for him, although many critics figure that he may be making a mistake in taking the match as a cinch.

Moran may not be the most dangerous lightweight contender but he is a tough fighter and he has been working regularly during the past year, while Leonard has been taking it easy around the movie studios.

Leonard might have an experience like Johnny Dundee who took a "warm up" bout against Eddie Wagner in Philadelphia last summer and made such a bad showing that he lost a chance to meet Leonard in a bout that had already been arranged.

Leonard probably will win over Moran and the bout will do him a lot of good.

The Shelbyville Nationals defeated the Rushville baseball club Sunday afternoon in that city, by the score of 6 to 2, in a well played game, featured by the heavy hitting of the Shelbyville crew.

Noonan, pitching for Rushville was given poor support in pinches, and three errors proved costly. Hobart, of this city, who plays with Shelby-ville, smacked out a home run over the fence, which counted for two bases on account of ground rules.

HORSESHOE TOURNAMENT HELD

Carl Perkins and Charlie Wamsley
Winners at New Salem

The New Salem Horseshoe players held a tournament Saturday afternoon at that place and about 70 persons attended. Twenty-four men took part in the tourney and new rules were used, in which 50 points count a game. Carl Perkins and Charlie Wamsley were the winners. Perkins and Ed Mock tied for high score, each making 34 points out of 50.

Those who took part were Clarence Mozingo, Seth Kelso, Charles Wamsley, Ed Mock, Ogo Bever, Morris Brickler, Wyatt Bell, Kenneth Wilson
Omer Perkins, R. McKibben, Dwight
Miller, Carl Perkins, Carl Vannatta, Dallas Hardwick, Raymond Mozingo,

KEEPING ONE EYE ON THE SCOREBOARD

Yesterday's Hero: Dazzy Vance,
the Brooklyn star pitcher, struck out nine beating the Cardinals 8-4 in the second game of a double header.
Brooklyn won the first, 6-5 in ten innings.

Left Mogridge came out of a losing streak of seven straight games and pitched the Senators to a 4-2 victory over the White Sox.

Babe Ruth failed to get a hit for the first time in 19 games and the Yanks lost to the Indians, 7-1, dropping into second place.

Ty Cobb stole second once, third twice and home once and helped the Tigers regain the league lead with a 13-7 victory over the Red Sox.

Rixey and Donohue stopped the artillery of the Giants and the Reds won a double bill behind two pitchers but set the Athletics back 10-8.

IDEAL WEATHER FOR THE OPENING

The crowds will be larger as the week goes on, because many people yesterday took advantage of the cooler weather for automobile trips.

The two preludes yesterday were given by the Chautauqua Sextette, and the two addresses were delivered by the Rev. W. R. Wedderspoon, pastor of the St. James Episcopal Methodist church of Chicago.

In the afternoon the Rev. Mr.
Wedderspoon delivered a sermon, and at night he took for his lecture address "Beside the Bonnie Briar Bush," relating the Scottish story in entertaining fashion.

The sermon that he preached in the afternoon was from the 27th Psalm, depicting what things constitute confidence among fellowmen, and with an individual. He set forth the fact that a large muscular body does not constitute confidence, neither does wealth.

All of the wealth alone cannot buy confidence, he said, and he recalled
the story of the death of John D.
Rockefeller's grandchild, when he would have given million to have saved his life, but death was no respecter of wealth, and gold in that case was poor.

The speaker pointed out several things that cannot alone bring confidence and in closing he quoted the 27th Psalm, showing that David had found Confidence only in calling upon the Lord, and that the same plea was being made today in all walks of life, that Confidence is a spiritual and not an every day trait for a human being.

At night, the Rev. Mr. Wedders-poon, a native of Scotland, spoke on "Beside the Bonnie Briar Bush", and in his native Scotch dialect, he held the audience for more than an hour, telling the enthralling story.

His lecture was pleasing, and because of the Scottish touch afforded by the speaker, the talk was made more impressive, and carried with it a deep thought, and especially a high respect for the Scottish people.

Howard Russell's Scottish Revue, which made its first appearance at the chautauqua this afternoon, comes highly recommended as a company of entertainers. This group of entertainers presents costume programs that consist of the best in vocal and instrumental selections. They will give a prelude tonight and another Tuesday afternoon.

Lewis A. Convis of Chicago, who speaks tonight, is very popular with local audiences, his last appearance here having been at the high school commencement exercises, when he delivered the address. A large crowd is expected to hear Mr. Convis tonight.

The assembly was formally opened Sunday afternoon with a short address by Robert E. Mansfield, president of the county association who acted as platform manager during the day. There will be no platform manager this year, one Rushville man having been selected for each day to be in charge and see that the programs run off smoothly.

LEOPOLD AND LOEB A MURDER COMBINATION

Dr. H. S. Hulbert, Defense Alienist, Refers to "Twisted Personalities" of Chicago Youths

Criminal Court Room, Chicago, Aug. 11—The combination of "twisted personalities" of Nathan Leopold Jr. and Richard Loeb, formed "a murder combination" that resulted in the kidnapping and slaying of Robert Franks, Dr. Harold S. Hulbert, defense alienist, testified today at the Franks hearing.

Hulbert said he was convinced that had the two boys been kept apart there would never have been a Franks case. But Leopold's pathological and highly intellectual urge, combined with Loeb's urge to be a master criminal, along with his general criminalistic leanings, inevitably found expression in the murder.

"Leopold without Loeb would have been harmless and Loeb without Leopold would not have committed the murder," the doctor said.

Dr. Hulbert was turned over to the prosecution for cross-examination and State's Attorney Robert E. Crowe attempted first to bring out that the witness had had little if any experience if any in examining criminals. Dr. Hulbert named several prominent criminals whom he said he had examined.

500 VETS TO ATTEND G. A. R. ENCAMPMENT

Vanguard of Civil War Veterans From State Left Saturday to Attend Encampment at Boston

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 11—The vanguard of nearly 500 Civil War veterans have left here from many sections of the state to attend the fifty-eighth national encampment of the G. A. R. at Boston, Mass.

The encampment began Sunday and will end Aug. 15. The headquarters officers of the Indiana G. A. R. with their wives and members of the affiliated patriotic organizations left Saturday. Although there are 6,000 veterans and 4,000 of whom are G. A. R. members in Indiana it was estimated that not over 500 would attend the encampment.

Because of the advanced age of the veterans—the average being around 80—special arrangements have been made to take care of them along the road.

The train from Indianapolis pick up addition delegates at Richmond, Dayton, Columbus, Pittsburgh, Harrisburg, Philadelphia and New York. The feature of the encampment will be the annual parade.

Miss Dorothy Cady of Milroy and Miss Elizabeth Kackley of Maysville, Ky., Thrown in River

FORMER MOST SEVERLY HURT

George Green and Maurice Jones Escape With Slight Bruises in Mishap Near Metamora

A very serious accident occurred Sunday night about 9:30 o'clock, near Metamora, Indiana, on the horseshoe bend when a Ford roadster, belonging to George Green of Milroy, was overturned.

Young Green, Maurice Jones and Miss Dorothy Cady, all of Milroy, and Miss Elizabeth Kackley, of Maysville, Ky., who is visiting in Milroy, were in the car at the time and all were injured seriously.

The Ford was utterly demolished.
Jones was driving the car at the time but was going slowly. He said that he saw the danger signal but thought the turn was sharp and since it was a slow curve, he turned right off the embankment and plunged down twenty feet.

Miss Cady, who is a correspondent for the Daily Republican, was unconscious when she was removed to Dr. Gifford's office in Laurel. One of her knees was badly hurt. Miss Kackley received a cut on the chin which required several stitches for it to be closed.

Young Green had a severe gash in the arm which required twelve stitches to close. Both he and Jones were also bruised to a great extent.

Both the girls were thrown into the river near the bridge but the water was not deep and they escaped drowning.

The young people realized the danger of driving over the hilly country in the dark and were going slow enough. It is thought that if they had been going faster they would have been killed.

They were taken to Dr. Gifford at Laurel where their wounds were dressed and afterwards they were removed to their homes in Milroy. It is thought that Miss Cady will be bedfast for several days until she recovers from her injuries.

Will be Arraigned Thursday on Charge of Transporting Liquor—
Held Under $2,000 Bond

ELMER SHANE IS FINED $5

Frank Hutson, Jr., who was arrested Friday night, was arraigned in police court Saturday afternoon before Mayor Thomas, and was fined $5 and costs for intoxication. A charge of transporting liquor, which the officers stated they found in his machine when he was arrested, will be heard Thursday afternoon at two o'clock in police court.

He went to jail upon default of $2,000 bond, and also in default of the payment of the fine on the intoxication charge. Officers are holding his machine, which according to the law, will be sold at auction if the defendant is convicted on the transportation charge.

Elmer Shane, who also was arrested Friday at Anderson and returned to jail here, was arraigned Saturday afternoon on a charge of secreting an automobile. He was fined $5 and costs and given 30 days at the state penal farm, which mayor Thomas suspended during good behavior. The charge against him was preferred by Russell Kirkpatrick, who alleges that he sold an automobile to him a year ago, and that he had removed it from the county without completing the payments, and that he had hidden it from him.

OPERATION SUCCESSFUL

Mrs. Fent Johnson received word today from her sister, Mrs. Laura Newbro, who went to Rochester Minn.
to undergo an operation for goitre,
that the operation was successful and she was improving as well as could be expected.

INJURED MAN NOT KNOWN

George Holliday, Said to be From Rushville, Hurt at Muncie

According to a dispatch from Muncie, George Holliday, age 65 years,
of Rushville, was injured internally Sunday in an automobile accident near that city. The city or county directory does not list any such name in Rush county.

The dispatch stated that he was in the machine driven by his daughter, Mrs. Grace Smith of Muncie, when another machine came along and crowded them off of the highway.
Mrs. Smith was only slightly injured, but Mr. Holliday was reported to be seriously hurt.

17 FREIGHT CARS DERAILED SUNDAY

Smash-up on Big Four Near Henderson, Caused by Broken Rail, Delays Traffic All Day

LUCKILY NO ONE IS INJURED

Cars Scattered Along Right-of-Way and Some of Them are Hurt
Into Corn Field

Seventeen freight cars, mostly loaded coal cars, figured in a smashup of a serious nature Sunday morning about 9 o'clock on the Big Four railroad, just north of Henderson, and six miles from this city,
but luckily no one was injured.

Traffic on the division was delayed all day Sunday and the track was not cleared for passage until late in the night.

A broken rail is believed to have caused the derailment. The long freight was headed north, and was making rapid headway on the straight track. The engine and tender passed over the broken rail in safety, but the seventeen cars behind were thrown in all directions along the right-of-way.

The loss will amount to several thousand dollars, as most of the cars were destroyed beyond repair.
The shipment scattered along the track consisted of 600 tons of coal.
When the cars hit the broken rail, several of the rails were torn up in twisted masses and buried among the wreckage.

The cars were sent in both directions of the tracks. Some of the loaded coal cars were tossed clear into the corn fields with their cargo and upset. Two box cars were reduced to kindling wood.

The caboose was far enough behind the wreckage, so that it did not leave the rails. The track was torn up for some distance, and the cars were piled up and scattered along the track for a quarter of a mile.

On account of the wreckage piled high on the track, it was necessary for two wrecking crews to be called.
Both of the heavy "hooks" or der-ails from the Chicago division of the Big Four, were sent to the wreck, and worked all day and night in getting the main line cleared for traffic today.

The freight cars and the coal were left along the right-of-way and were still there today, and will be taken up later in the week.

A false report was in circulation late yesterday that two bodies, probably hoboes, had been found in the debris, but this report was found to be groundless today.

Danish Government Makes it Possible for U. S. Airmen to Proceed

Washington, Aug. 11—The Danish government has consented to establishment of emergency bases of the world flyers near Cape Farewell, extreme south tip of Greenland, and advance officers have made tentative landings, the air service was informed
today.

This was taken to mean the flyers have decided the quickest way of negotiating the last hop is by the way of Cape Farewell with a direct non-stop hop off of 780 miles. Given good weather, there is no doubt the airmen can make it.

Motor Car Accidents Cause Death of 43 Persons, 14 Drown and One Killed in Grandstand Collapse

Interurban Cars and Trains Add
Their Weekly Quota of Maimed
And Killed

(By United Press)

Scattered reports from various cities in the country places the toll from week-end outing accidents at 58 persons dead and 135 injured.
Many of the injured are not expected to live.

Motor car accidents caused 43
deaths, fourteen persons drowned and one man killed when a wooden grandstand caved-in.

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 11—Auto accident claimed five lives and a dozen seriously injured in Indiana Sunday. Four others were killed just across the Ohio state line near Oxford.

An interurban car struck an auto
at Laporte, killing Alvin Rush, 36, his wife, Muriel, 25, and John Jeffery, 27, all of Three Oaks, Mich.
Jeffrey's three year old son was probably fatally injured. They were on their way to attend a family reunion here.

In the accident at Oxford, O., Roy Fawns, 20, his sister, Lelia, 15, J.
E. Johnson, 35, and his daughter, Bolores, 11, were killed. Fawns' wife was probably fatally injured. The Fawns had been married just two days and were on their way from Ringes Mills, Ky., to Newcastle, Ind., to make their home. Their auto was hit by a passenger train on the Cincinnati, Indianapolis, and Western railroad.

Mrs. Rebecca Winslow, Indianapolis, was killed and four others were injured when their auto was struck by a Pennsylvania passenger train near Seymour.

Another car obstructed their view of the tracks and the party drove directly in front of the locomotive.
After Leo Haas, 20, of Jasper,
had been missing for eight hours,
his body was found pinned beneath the wreckage of his auto in a corn field near Jasper. He was last seen alive starting home from a dance late Saturday night.

Five persons were injured, none seriously, in the collision of two autos at a cross roads near Elwood.

GRAND HOTEL, OLD LANDMARK, IS SOLD

Building Will be Razed and Gasoline Filling Station Erected by Roxanna
Oil Company

One of the oldest landmarks in Rushville, the Grand Hotel corner at First and Main streets, will give way to more modern business, following the sale of the property at an administrator's sale Saturday to the Roxanna
Oil Company.

The building was sold upon order of the court to settle up the estate of the late P. A. Miller, of which his widow, Mrs. Lena Miller, is the administrator. The price bid for the property was $10,000, subject to the acceptance within 30 days.

The hotel property is only one of several offered for sale, and the other bids have not been decided upon.
There were two bids for the hotel property, with the Roxanna oil company having the highest bid.

If the deal is approved, the oil company plans to tear down the land mark, and erect a modern gasoline filling station, which will be the first one to obtain a location on the public square.

TO BE THE BASIS OF REGISTRATION

Important Information Has Been Prepared for Voters by Indiana
Election Commission

Voters Who Have Not Moved From Precinct Since 1922 Will Not Have to Register

Important information concerning registration of voters has just been prepared by the Indiana Election Commissioners and this will be the official basis for all registrations this year.

Under the new law, voters who registered in 1922 and who have not moved out of their precinct in which they voted in the 1922 election need not re-register unless it happens that their county has ordered a new registration, which is not the case in Rush county. Among the counties which have ordered complete new registration are Marion, Madison and part of Vermillion, and in these counties the voters affected must register again regardless of their previous registration. Most of the counties where voters properly registered last time need not register again, but they should be sure that the county auditor has their name properly recorded.

Voters who have moved since the last election, those who did not register last time, those who have become 21 years old since the last registration will have an opportunity to register in each precinct of the state on October 6, which will be the only registration day in these counties.
However they can fill out their blanks
now and leave the blank with the Republican County Chairman and he will see that they are properly signed.

There are three ways to register:
One way is to go in person to the registration place in each precinct on October 6 and fill out a blank. Another way is to fill out a blank any time and have it sworn to by a notary, and leave it with the County Chairman to be filed October 6. The third way is to fill out a blank now and in the absence of a notary, have two voters who live in the registrant's precinct sign as witnesses and then leave with the County Chairman to be filed on registration day.

For the first time, voters do not have to give their ages this year. The law has been changed so that it is only necessary to state that the voter will be 21 years or more November 4, which is election day. A voter who is not properly registered at 9 o'clock

Number of Rushville People Spend Sunday at Turkey Run

Many parents who have sons attending the Rush county boys camp at Turkey Run, near Crawfordsville, Indiana, and their friends, visited the camp Sunday and reported an enjoyable time.

Among the visitors were Mr. and Mrs. George Davis, Mr. and Mrs.
Herschel VanMatre, Mr. and Mrs.
Gunn Haydon, Mr. and Mrs. Hal
Green and daughter, Mrs. Hugh Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Derby Green,
Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kramer and Mr.
and Mrs. Carl F. Beher.

The visitors were well pleased at the condition of the camp and many of them, especially the men, expressed the desire that they were boys again and could attend it. All of the twenty-four boys who are at the camp are in the best of spirits and are well and healthy.

Books Should Have More Than That to Recommend Them, Dr. Leon H.
Vincent Tells Teachers

Boston Man Discusses Carlyle and His Wife—B. J. Burris Not Coming Until Wednesday

"There is no virtue in reading the latest novel simply because it is the latest," asserted Dr. Leon H. Vincent of Boston, during the course of his second lecture before the annual Rush county teachers' institute in the court house assembly room.

Dr. Vincent closed the lecture regarding the influence of Carlyle's writing upon his work, with a plea for reading only standard literature.

"There is no need for not being familiar with 'The Fall of the Roman Empire', he said, 'or the French Revolution.'

Dr. Vincent urged reading such works daily, a few pages at a time, not as a task that must be completed, but as a source of information.

"There is no virtue in being able to say, when asked, that you have read the latest novel," he declared.

Benjamin J. Burris of Indianapolis, state superintendent of public instruction, was to speak to the institute this morning on the subject,
"How Can The Rural Schools Best Serve The Community?" When the hour came for his address, B. D.
Farthing, county superintendent, who is presiding, announced that Mr. Burris would be unable to come to Rushville before Wednesday and he will speak on the morning of that day.

Mr. Burris addressed the institute last year on the teaching of the constitution in the schools, and made a very profound impression upon the teachers of the county and others who heard him.

Mr. Farthing announced the appointment of the following committee this morning.

Program—B. D. Farthing, John Koch, Paul Royalty, Vernal Klipsch, and F. E. Landrus. This committee will select the instructors for next year's institute and will consult with

Three Persons Are Injured When
Two Automobiles Attempt to Pass Near Arlington

ROD HOLDS CAR ON BRIDGE

Three persons were injured in an automobile accident early Sunday morning in the covered bridge just east of Arlington, when two machines attempted to pass in the bridge.

The three persons, two girls and a boy, were from Indianapolis and were enroute to Cincinnati. They were riding in a Dodge Sedan. Dr.
A. G. Shauk of Arlington, who attended them, did not learn their names, but stated that the car was owned by a man named Schultz of Indianapolis.

When an attempt to pass in the bridge was made, the car struck the side of the wooden bridge and practically wrecked the end of the bridge.
A rod prevented the sedan from plunging into the water below. The car was badly demolished.

One of the girls suffered a deep cut on one arm that required eight stitches, and the other two were cut and bruised.

MOVIES

Conway Tearle Starring

Distaste and charitable pity for the society butterfly is an equally popular sentiment, and the transformation of the pampered, irresponsible girl of wealth into the real woman which the workaday world requires has always been a process of public interest.

In "One Week of Love" being shown at the Castle theatre today and Tuesday, Conway Tearle is the most ingeniously drawn character of the forceful lover which has ever been created for the screen. College bred but disappointed in love, he has become a truly primitive cave-man but, more than that, his underlying intellect and polish have given him all attributes of the "Shick". Elaine Hammerstein is the Society Butterfly pictured to perfection—treating every real problem in life as a huge joke, constantly tasting of dangerous pleasures, and continually looking for new and more exciting diversions. The restoration of these two characters to social normalcy through one of the most unusual love affairs ever conceived is the backbone of the story of "One Week of Love"—a story with sure-fire appeal to all classes of theatregoers, even including those who find it hard to accept the conventional male lover on the screen.

As to direction, "One Week of Love" ranks with the leading productions of recent years. George Archainbaud, who collaborated with Mr. Montague in the creation of the story, was able to direct its telling in animated pictures with unusual effect for the reason that he had exact knowledge of just the shade of meaning it was necessary to convey in each scene presented. Mr. Archainbaud has long enjoyed high standing in the ranks of motion picture directors but it has remained for "One Week of Love" to establish him as a leader in his chosen profession.

Four sizzling good fights in one picture are a feature of "Western Luck", Charles Jones' newest William Fox production, now running at the Mystic theatre. If this isn't enough to satisfy his thousands of followers, particularly among the great army of small boys of the world who adore the star, Jones says he will make it five next time.

"Western Luck" concerns the adventures of a young westerner whose troubles begin on the day of his birth. To free his foster father from a crooked deal and at the same time rid his sweetheart of a villainous snit, Jones had his hands full every minute. He divides his fighting prowess between a band of crooks near his home out in the West and a gang of hired thugs in New York. He has two "peachy" fights with the villain and two with the gangs.

Mae Murray At Princess

Mae Murray is coming. That's news which will be welcomed by movie-goers everywhere. But that's not all. Her newest Metro picture, "The French Doll," which will be at the Princess theatre Aug. 18-19 is undoubtedly the beautiful star's most elaborate and fascinating production. This startling photoplay breaks Miss Murray's own record for gorgeous gowns and luxurious settings. Her ravishing costumes were made from her own designs in New York, Paris, and Vienna, and they represent the last word in luxurious apparel. There are scenes of society life in Paris, New York and Palm Beach. Miss Murray has the role of a vivacious little French girl who found romance in America.

"The French Doll" is based on the successful play in which Irene Bordani played the leading role. Frances Marion prepared the scenario. The photoplay is presented by Robert Z. Leonard and was produced by Tiffany Productions, of which Mr. Leonard is director general and M. H. Hoffman general manager.

There's nothing more convincing than the statement of someone you know and have confidence in. That's why this talk with Mr. Offutt of 321 W. Fourth street, should be mighty helpful here in Rushville.

S. G. Offutt, retired blacksmith, says: "I will never forget how my back ached. Knife-like stabs made stooping work practically impossible. I couldn't get rid of the stiffness across my kidneys, but worse than that, my kidneys wouldn't act often enough. The secretions were scanty and laden with sediment. Many times I didn't know what would become of me. I felt so badly. Doan's Pills, however, from Pitman and Wilson's Drug Store, regulated my kidneys and my back ached no longer."

FEWER BUT BETTER CHURCHES, MOTTO

During Year 33 New Churches Were Organized and 143 Were Closed or Merged Into Others

New York, Aug. 11.—The annual report of the congregational churches of the United States has just been made public. A summary made by Rev. Charles E. Barton, the secretary, shows a notable tendency towards "fewer churches but better." The denomination reports a loss of one hundred and ten churches, but an increase of 3,322 members. The average membership per church, taking the country over, increased from 147 per church to over 150 members per churches. This is accounted for by three reasons:
First, the concentration of population in cities from the country thus making the maintenance of rural churches impossible.
Second, the wide use of the automobile allows many country dwellers to go to the town church.
Third, the growing spirit of church union or federation which brings about the union of two or more small churches of various denominations into one strong church.
During the year 33 new churches were organized, and 143 were closed or merged into churches of other denominations. Property values have increased by $8,412,461, bringing it up to $132,388,237. Invested funds of the churches amount to $15,343,948, being an increase of $824,550 in the year.
The annual budgets of the churches reporting amount to $18,261,691, which is $1,479,936 more than the preceding year. This does not include the benevolence of the churches, which total $5,366,181, or $153,965 more than the preceding year.

Novel Trimming

A novel trimming effect is shown in this two-piece costume of golden brown crepe de chine. The bottom of the skirt and the collar of the cape are finished with hoop-like rolls made by inserting very wide, padded cords into a fold of the silk. Many of the newest capes and coats are finished this way and fur is eliminated. This gives something of the fluffy effect of fur without its suggestion of warmth which is unwelcome in mid-summer.

This was the only business of the committee at its morning session. It was to meet again this afternoon to elect a secretary and treasurer and a vice chairman who will be in charge of women's activities. Mrs. Emily Newell Blair is expected to be renominated to this post. Charles A. Greshouse, of Indiana is expected to be selected secretary.
The post of treasurer has been offered to W. T. Kemper, of Kansas City, national committeeman from Missouri, but there is some doubt about his accepting the place. He will give his decision at the afternoon meeting.

A constant prayer:—Withhold not thou thy tender mercies from me, O Lord: let thy loving kindness and thy truth continually preserve me.—Psalm 40: 11.

Prayer:—Lord, we claim Thy promise, "He that trusteth in the Lord, mercy shall compass him about."

A Credit Asset

Fire prevention, which has been growing in practice since the beginning of the twentieth century, pays its cost many times over. It is a credit asset in business, just as going value and good will are. Credit is based on wealth, and as fire destroys wealth it is natural that effective steps to reduce or prevent such destruction should be reflected in increased confidence and trust.

An illustration of how fire prevention has become a powerful credit asset is drawn by William Walker Orr, a credit expert, from a comparison of conditions today and a few years ago in the flour milling industry. Reports to the National Fire Waste Council show that the study and efforts of chemists and fire prevention engineers have developed safety measures which have advanced the milling industry from a position of extreme hazard to comparative freedom from hazard. Formerly it was considered unsafe to do business in large units in the milling of flour and it was difficult to get an adequate insurance coverage and to attract investments in mill stocks. Orr said, but with the application of scientific precautions to safeguard the properties investments are now readily made in the milling industry and pro-

The cotton and drug industries are notable examples of other lines that have been made similarly safe by fire prevention, Orr states.

Every business, whether manufacturing, jobbing, or retailing, can profit from the practice of fire prevention and Newman T. Miller, the state fire marshal, has announced that his office will furnish information and make recommendations or otherwise assist any business or industry in making plants and stores more safe.

In the June Harper's Magazine, David F. Houston has a constructive article which shows that this country is sound in spite of the workings of pessimists, agitators and demagogues.

Those whose comparisons are with the heroic days of George Washington are reminded that he was by some of his own day called a hypocrite, an impostor and a murderer. Those whose political demagogues are the Clays, the Websters and the Calhouns are told that Cleveland, Wilson and Richard Olney were more worthy to be followed than these statesmen of the former days. And to those who do not look back at all, but only about them in bewilderment and disgust upon scandals, class conflicts and blocs, Mr. Houston brings the conclusion that no one "class" or "bloc" has sense enough to govern all the other classes, and that present "blooms" will disappear even as did the ones against which Washington warned the people.

There is, with a safeguarded economic stability, a spirit in the people which will insist upon a clean national household from cellar to attic, and which prompts this financier whose roots are deep in the soil of America to advise the public that "the United States is today the safest investment in the world."

There was dodging of automobiles and a bicycle was damaged in an accident at Second and Morgan streets. Lew Oneal was coming down Morgan street in his automobile and Rev. Mr. Morrow of Arlington was coming down Second street in his runabout. In some way the machines did not agree on which way to turn. Although there was no danger of a collision Mr. Morrow before he could control his machine, ran into Gibson Ryss' bicycle which was standing against the curb stone. The bicycle was slightly damaged and Mr. Morrow gave young Ryss $1 and everybody was satisfied.

HUNT'S DAILY LETTER

BY HARRY B. HUNT

NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON—Let's haul another brick-bat at Washington, the "beautiful capital." Let's try to get another peek behind the false fronts behind which this city lives.

Washington's population is not a "producing" population. Although it is inclined, as a city, to turn its nose up at other cities, it is in no sense self-sustaining. It is parasitic. Actually, not figuratively, it lives off the rest of the country.

Washington's population falls into three distinct classes.

First—Employees and officials of the United States government.

Second—Tradesmen and their employees, who feed and clothe the employees and officials of the government.

Third—"Retired" individuals of wealth, with social or political aspirations, who find in life at the capital an opportunity to serve their own interests as well as their own pleasures by being "in the swim" of capital affairs.

THE result of this condition is that the only group with any permanent, abiding interest in the development of the city is the second—the group which lives off the less permanent and less Washington-minded part of the population.

Many thousands of Washington residents, persons who have lived here for years, never think of Washington as "home."

"Home" is where they came from when they first got their job with Uncle Sam. It is where they keep their "voting residence." It is where they expect to return when they quit the government service.

In the meantime, with no voice as to how the city is to be run, with only a "temporary" interest in its affairs, they accept unsatisfactory housing and transportation, high prices and mediocre service, and the dozen and one annoyances and inconveniences that beset the existence of the average sojourner here, as the lot of a temporary dweller anywhere, and make the best of it with a minimum of protest.

Among this group—and it is one of the largest in Washington—there is little loyalty to the capital city. It has taken from them in full measure for what it has given. It never becomes their city, their home.

They now know too well the rear sides of those false fronts which first fascinated them. They may "like" Washington, but their love remains steadfast with Kankakee, Kalamazoo and Walla Walla.

ONE of the difficulties with Washington, on the material side of its evolution, has been its intensive development.

Washington is limited by the boundaries of the District of Columbia. It cannot expand. It cannot spread. It cannot sprout extensive suburban areas of comfortable homes and annex them as part of the parent city.

Anything outside the 73 square miles of the District of Columbia never can hope to be a part of Washington.

You may be two miles from the White House, in Virginia, but you are an outlander.

You may be five miles from the White House, and in Maryland, and you are likewise outside the pale.

But you may be seven miles from the White House, and still inside the remotest point of the District Line, and the rest of the United States will pay 40 per cent of your city taxes.

THE result of these fixed limits to what may ever be included in the beneficence of the nation to its capital city has resulted in a close control, by a few large interests, of the undeveloped territory still within the District.

This assured monopoly has in turn made possible the capitalization of these lands on a scale which forces their sale in the smallest possible plots.

This makes for congestion and crowding and ugliness, not for a healthy, happy, "beautiful" capital city.

Chiropractic Health Talk No. 81

By H. V. McCully, D. C. Ph. C.

The time of the year has arrived that so many people hate to see because it means either leave home for northern points or pass through a siege of so called Hay Fever.

The only ones who suffer from this malady are those who have nasal passages that are inflamed and oversensitive. This condition is due to a lack of nerve supply to the nasal membrane, caused by a pressure on the spinal nerve as it leaves the region of the neck.

The pollen from plants or other substance, so prevalent in the dust laden air of summer, coming in contact with the already inflamed nasal

Dave Shade of California Will be Given Chance With Winner of Walker-Leonard Bout

The Match Will Probably Be Put on the Open Market to Obtain Spirited Bidding

(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

New York, Aug. 11—Another interesting championship match has been added to the overburdened summer boxing program. Dave Shade, the California welterweight, who has been trying to get a championship match for three years, has been promised a bout with the winner of the Walker-Leonard match.

Following a precedent that was established last summer when Johnny Dundee claimed priority over Eugene Criqui for a featherweight championship bout with Johnny Kilbane, the New York boxing commission asked Walker and Leonard to sign an agreement that the winner of the bout would accept a match with Shade within 40 days after their bout. The managers of Walker and Leonard agreed.

The match probably will be put on the open market and spirited bidding by the promoters is sure to follow. Shade for several years has been regarded as the outstanding contender in the class. His efforts to get a championship match with Jack Britton failed and when Mickey Walker succeeded Britton, Shade met with no more success and he was forced to leave the class and mingle with the middleweights. Walker was suspended by the commission for refusing to accept Shade's challenge and it was only recently that he was reinstated.

Leonard, who has been training at Tamersville, is in Cleveland now, where he is to meet Pat Moran next Monday night. The lightweight champion insists that the match will be nothing more than a warm-up for him, although many critics figure that he may be making a mistake in taking the match as a cinch.

Moran may not be the most dangerous lightweight contender but he is a tough fighter and he has been working regularly during the past year, while Leonard has been taking it easy around the movie studios.

Leonard might have an experience like Johnny Dundee who took a "warm up" bout against Eddie Wagner in Philadelphia last summer and made such a bad showing that he lost a chance to meet Leonard in a bout that had already been arranged.

Leonard probably will win over Moran and the bout will do him a lot of good.

Noonan, Rushville Pitcher, Falls Before Shelbyville Nationals

The Shelbyville Nationals defeated the Rushville baseball club Sunday afternoon in that city, by the score of 6 to 2, in a well played game, featured by the heavy hitting of the Shelbyville crew.

Noonan, pitching for Rushville was given poor support in pinches, and three errors proved costly. Hobart, of this city, who plays with Shelbyville, smacked out a home run over the fence, which counted for two bases on account of ground rules. The score by innings:

Rushville 000 100 001—2—6—3
Shelbyville 211 010 01—6—10—3
Batteries: Rushville, Noonan and Byrne; Shelbyville, Redman and Leaty.

HORSESHOE TOURNEY HELD

Carl Perkins and Charlie Wamsley Winners at New Salem

The New Salem Horseshoe players held a tournament Saturday afternoon at that place and about 70 persons attended. Twenty-four men took part in the tourney and new rules were used, in which 50 points count a game. Carl Perkins and Charlie Wamsley were the winners. Perkins and Ed Mock tied for high score, each making 34 points out of 50.

Those who took part were Clarence Mozingo, Seth Kelson, Charles Wamsley, Ed Mock, Ogo Bever, Morris Brickler, Wyatt Bell, Kenneth Wilson, Omer Perkins, R. McKibben, Dwight Miller, Carl Perkins, Carl Vannatta, Dallas Hardwick, Raymond Mozingo, Elmer Watson, Amos Clark, A. J. Perkins, Clifton Stamm, Willard King, Frank Tilley, Garrett Ricketts, William King and Thomas Kelson.

The judges were Ed Brickler and Harold Matney and John Murphy was score-keeper.

KEEPING ONE EYE ON THE SCOREBOARD

Yesterday's Hero: Dazzy Vance, the Brooklyn star pitcher, struck out nine beating the Cardinals 8-4 in the second game of a double header. Brooklyn won the first 7-6 in ten innings.

Left Mogridge came out of a losing streak of seven straight games and pitched the Senators to a 4-2 victory over the White Sox.

Babe Ruth failed to get a hit for the first time in 19 games and the Yanks lost to the Indians, 7-1, dropping into second place.

Ty Cobb stole second once, third twice and home once and helped the Tigers regain the league lead with a 13-7 victory over the Red Sox.

Rixey and Donohue stopped the artillery of the Giants and the Reds won a double bill behind two pitchers but set the Athletics back 10-8.

The crowds will be larger as the week goes on, because many people yesterday took advantage of the cooler weather for automobile trips.

The two preludes yesterday were given by the Chautauqua Sextette, and the two addresses were delivered by the Rev. W. R. Wedderspoon, pastor of the St. James Episcopal Methodist church of Chicago.

In the afternoon the Rev. Mr. Wedderspoon delivered a sermon, and at night he took for his lecture address "Beside the Bonnie Briar Bush" relating the Scottish story in entertaining fashion.

The sermon that he preached in the afternoon was from the 27th Psalm, depicting what things constitute confidence among fellowmen, and with an individual. He set forth the fact that a large muscular body does not constitute confidence, neither does wealth.

All of the wealth alone cannot buy confidence, he said, and he recalled the story of the death of John D. Rockefeller's grandchild, when he would have given millions to have saved his life, but death was no respecter of wealth, and gold in that case was poor.

The speaker pointed out several things that cannot alone bring confidence and in closing he quoted the 27th Psalm, showing that David had found confidence only in calling upon the Lord, and that the same plea was being made today in all walks of life, that Confidence is a spiritual and not an every day trait for a human being.

At night, the Rev. Mr. Wedderspoon, a native of Scotland, spoke on "Beside the Bonnie Briar Bush", and in his native Scotch dialect, he held the audience for more than an hour, telling the enthralling story.

His lecture was pleasing, and because of the Scottish touch afforded by the speaker, the talk was made more impressive, and carried with it a deep thought, and especially a high respect for the Scottish people.

Howard Russell's Scottish Revue, which made its first appearance at the Chautauqua this afternoon, comes highly recommended as a company of entertainers. This group of entertainers presents costume programs that consist of the best in vocal and instrumental selections. They will give a prelude tonight and another Tuesday afternoon.

Lewis A. Convis of Chicago, who speaks tonight, is very popular with local audiences, his last appearance here having been at the high school commencement exercises, when he delivered the address. A large crowd is expected to hear Mr. Convis tonight.

The assembly was formally opened Sunday afternoon with a short address by Robert E. Mansfield, president of the county association who acted as platform manager during the day. There will be no platform manager this year, one Rushville man having been selected for each day to be in charge and see that the programs run off smoothly.

Dr. H. S. Hulbert, Defense Alienist, Refers to "Twisted Personalities" of Chicago Youths

Criminal Court Room, Chicago, Aug. 11—The combination of "twisted personalities" of Nathan Leopold Jr., and Richard Loeb, formed "a murder combination" that resulted in the kidnapping and slaying of Robert Franks, Dr. Harold S. Hulbert, defense alienist, testified today at the Franks hearing.

Hulbert said he was convinced that had the two boys been kept apart there would never have been a Franks case. But Leopold's pathological and highly intellectual urge, combined with Loeb's urge to be a master criminal, along with his general criminalistic leanings, inevitably found expression in the murder.

Leopold without Loeb would have been harmless and Loeb without Leopold would not have committed the murder," the doctor said.

Dr. Hulbert was turned over to the prosecution for cross-examination and State's Attorney Robert E. Crowe attempted first to bring out that the witness had had little if any experience if any in examining criminals. Dr. Hulbert named several prominent criminals whom he said he had examined.

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 11—The vanguard of nearly 500 Civil War veterans have left here from many sections of the state to attend the fifty-eighth national encampment of the G. A. R. at Boston, Mass.

The encampment began Sunday and will end Aug. 15. The headquarters officers of the Indiana G. A. R. with their wives and members of the affiliated patriotic organizations left Saturday. Although there are 6,000 veterans and 4,000 of whom are G. A. R. members in Indiana it was estimated that not over 500 would attend the encampment.

Because of the advanced age of the veterans—the average being around 80—special arrangements have been made to take care of them along the road.

The train from Indianapolis picked up addition delegates at Richmond, Dayton, Columbus, Pittsburgh, Harrisburg, Philadelphia and New York. The feature of the encampment will be the annual parade.
